The Idaho Department of Commerce is hosting two informative public workshops on the draft Idaho Joint Land Use Study (JLUS). Created with input from the public and agencies and organizations in the region, the draft JLUS is designed to protect the future of Mountain Home Air Force Base, Mountain Home Range Training Complex, Gowen Field and Orchard Training Area while maintaining the economic development potential of the area.

Please join us at one or both of the upcoming public workshops to learn about the draft JLUS and provide your thoughts on the strategies proposed in the draft document. Comments from the public will be considered by the two JLUS Policy Committees at their next meetings.
